

Worksheet 5.3: Why marry?

I can live with my best friend and get to know them better throughout our life together.

I get to share the washing up and cleaning.

Being married helps us learn to be less selfish and not always expect to have our own way.

We can learn about God together.

Being married means we have a stable home to bring up our children in.

We have made a new family together and become part of each other's families.

We help one another become the best people we can be.
We can be completely honest with each other.

We share everything, including our money and special belongings.

I enjoy being loved and having someone else to love. I feel safe because we have promised to stay together.
